THE WEATHER
Rain and warmer tonight; Saturday fair and cooler; southerly winds.

THE BOSTON TRAVELER

WAR EXTRA

91ST YEAR. BOSTON, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1915. 16 PAGES. ONE CENT.

FOUR BULLETS KILL HILLSTROM

Condemned Man in Frenzy, Tries to Kill Prison Guards

CLAIM "WIDOW" MIXED CYANIDE DOSE FOR SELF

Defence Holds That Poison Burns Drank Was Bought by Woman for Suicide.

(Special Dispatch to The Traveler.)

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Nov. 19—Claiming that the woman who died in Rye Beach, Sept. 10, after drinking poisoned whiskey, bought the deadly drug herself with the intention of committing suicide, Defense Attorney Frank W. Grinnell, in his opening address to the jury today, declared that Mrs. Alice Annable, widow of Frank L. Annable, who was drowned at the same time, was the first witness called by the defense.

While the first witness for the defense was testifying Mrs. Alice Annable of Boston, widow of the dead man, Deputy Sheriff Shaw and Dr. Abraham

Continued on Page Two, Column 1.

POWERS TRYING TO GET CHINA TO JOIN ENTENTE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19—Great Britain, France and Russia have acted in an effort to add China to the entente alliance in order to prevent possible friction in the future between Japan and China, it was learned here today from official sources.

The entente powers, it is said, are willing to give China a guarantee of military participation in the present war if she will enter it, but they do not ask for nor do a conventional sign, which as indication as to China's attitude. At present China is neutral, it was understood, its diplomatic representatives at Pekin and at European capitals are refraining from participation.

ALLEGED CHILD MURDERESS NEAR COLLAPSE AT TRIAL

"No, No, No," Miss Cannon Whispers as Alleged Confession Is Recited.

(Special Dispatch to The Traveler.)

WESTFIELD, Nov. 19—Miss Elizabeth Cannon, 19 years old, of Russell, today on trial for life before Judge Sanderson in the Superior Court here, charged with the murder of her baby girl, Lucille Mary Thomas, 2 years old, as the hearing ended a number of women friends of the accused nurse came forward to where she sat, and closed her. Miss Cannon was on the stand for the first time today, after hearing the testimony of her alleged confession, by which she was pictured as having killed the baby girl in a fit of rage, and then setting fire to the house she kept expecting, "no, no, no" in a whisper.

It was brought out in the testimony that Miss Cannon had said "she would not be sorry if the baby died, as it was an electric chair." When State Police officer Thomas E. Riley of Pittsfield, the last witness for the state, had testified that Miss Cannon admit her head to repeated denial. The mother of the child, Mrs. Mary Thomas, is also under arrest.

The hearing was held before Judge W. S. Kellogg in the district court of Westfield, and the prisoner was represented against the charge by Stephen O. Taft, Jr., of Springfield.

Dr. Frederick A. Cline of Pittsfield, who was that Miss Cannon had injected kerosene and mercurochrome into the body of the child dead, and the other that she had set fire to the house in which she and the child had made their home in Russell.

No Defence Offered.

Mr. Taft, counsel for the defendant, although J. Harrison Allen, attorney for Miss Cannon, moved that the case be dismissed on the ground that the commonwealth failed to show a case, offered no defense, and Judge Sanderson ruled that the case should go to the jury.

Continued on Page Two, Column 6.

Mother and Doctor Who Let Baby Die

(Copyright by International Film Service.)
Mrs. Anna Ballenger and Dr. Heinrichs of Chicago.

EXPECT SURGEON'S VINDICATION IN DEATH OF BABY

CHICAGO, Nov. 19—No leading surgeons hesitated to express their opinion today as to whether Dr. Percy J. Heinrichs did right or wrong in refusing to operate on the deformed Ballinger baby, and thus save its life, now in acute pain and suffering.

Hector certainly vindicated the hold of the infant, the surgeons plan to relieve the baby's pain by operating upon the child. Dr. Heinrichs, Coroner's Physician H. G. W. Hoffmann, secretary of the Board of Health, and others in whose care the child was born, and others who had anything to do with the case.

Members of the jury agreed, as to discuss their findings until made public by the coroner, and that no statement will be issued by Dr. Heinrichs will be voiced.

"Dr. Heinrich was further in this matter," Coroner Ingham said, "and I am sure that he will be exonerated by the jury when they have heard all the evidence that Dr. Heinrichs said.

NOW! NOW!
Not Next Week
Not Sometime
BUT TODAY
is the time to make secure the education of your child by joining The Bankers' College Foundation, which started with such a response from the Public that it has proven itself the Best Co-operative Savings Organization in existence.
START TODAY!
Cosmopolitan Trust Company
70 Devonshire St., Boston

THOUSANDS HERE FOR HARVARD-YALE GAME

Betting Is at 10 to 8 with Crimson Favored—Seats Are Bringing $40 to $50 a Pair, with Few to Be Had.

Harvard-Yale enthusiasm, simmering all summer throughout the autumn and football season, is today coming to a boiling point. Tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the crimson and blue football elevens line up on opposite sides of the field at Cambridge, great Stadium, filled followers of the alma mater, will be charged almost with all attention centered on the field. Thousands upon thousands will be added to this city, and thousands upon thousands of dollars will change hands as the result of the game. Followers of Harvard and Yale pride themselves on their ability to "get down" with the best of them in the matter of betting, and the odds on the game are today worth considerable money. Many bets have been made on the game, and more have been made on the game, and more have been made on the game, and more